

Central Themes in Systemic Work

Informal Evening Lectures with Judith Hemming

This season of inspirational evening lectures will be presented by accomplished systemic practitioner, Judith Hemming. Drawing on her extensive experience as a teacher and therapist, Judith will be exploring the underpinning principles and philosophy of systemic constellations as well as discussing practical applications of the approaches in personal, social, academic and organisational spheres. A question and answer session will be included at the end of each presentation; tea and coffee will also be provided.

Monday 10th March 2008 - Activating Underlying Resources - in this talk Judith returns to core systemic philosophy, with particular reference to one to one work with clients.

Monday 21st April 2008 - Intimate Life - an exploration of marriage, couples, fertility and parenting from a systemic perspective.

Monday 19th May 2008 - Crisis, Trauma and Recovery

Monday 14th July 2008 - Education – report and dialogue on our development of systemic ways of enhancing life and learning for children.

Monday 29th September 2008 - Addictions, Compulsions and Physical limitations

Judith Hemming (MA, UKCP Reg) has a background in education and gestalt psychotherapy. Since learning Hellinger's approach in 1992 and studying with many practitioners, she has been practising and teaching constellations world-wide. As a founding senior faculty member of CSISS (centre for the study of intimate and social systems) and a director of the nowherefoundation, she has developed and taught applications of the systemic approach in personal, organisational and educational contexts. She coaches, consults and runs workshops and training programmes in the UK, Europe, Asia, the USA and Australia.
